President's Podium

I am very honored and excited to be serving as the President of the Kentucky Society for Certified Public Managers (KSCPM) this year, one in which we anticipate many positive changes with our national organization, the American Academy of Certified Public Managers®, affiliating with the American Society for Public Administration (ASPA). As with most situations in which changes are involved, you are probably wondering, what will the effects and benefits of the ASPA affiliation be for me as a KSCPM and AACPM member? While we are still in the process of discovering all the benefits, those currently known consist of the following: access to publications specifically for public practitioners, webinars, local trainings, discounts on select publications, books, services and conferences, and expanded networking group. Details regarding the benefits can be found on the ASPA website.

As we enter this exciting time of change, I challenge each of you to reach out to a CPM graduate and let them know about the transition we are going through, along with the numerous benefits of the new affiliation. While I and our dedicated Board of Directors are grateful for our members throughout the years, we would love to grow our membership and enter into this affiliation between the AACPM and ASPA together. Please take the time to see how $120 can obtain you the following four memberships: 1) ASPA membership, 2) AACPM Section membership, 3) Local ASPA Chapter membership, and 4) Local CPM Society membership.

Come hear more about the benefits of the multiple memberships and the affiliation with ASPA at our annual KSCPM Professional Development Seminar entitled, "Honoring the Past, Treasuring the Present, Shaping the Future" which will be held on Wednesday, May 22, 2013, at the Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History, Frankfort, KY. Encourage a colleague to register also as the seminar is open to everyone. Hope to see you there!

Cassidy Connell, CPM
KSCPM President

No further nominations being made a motion was made to accept the 2013 slate as presented. The motion carried unanimously. Cassidy Connell, President-Elect for 2012 will serve as President for 2013.

Larry Totten then presented a summary of the AACPM/ASPA merger and what that means for each KSCPM member. AACPM Delegates voted to approve AACPM affiliation with ASPA at the Annual AACPM Conference in October. Dues for 2013 will be an additional $75 for the first year then $100 thereafter with retirees paying $55 annually. Everyone is encouraged to visit the ASPA website <http://aspanet.org> and read about its benefits.

Recent Email Message from AACPM/ASPA Regarding Affiliation

American Academy of Certified Public Managers®

As we have previously announced and most of you are already aware, the American Academy of Certified Public Managers® voted during our 2012 annual meeting to affiliate with the American Society for Public Administration (ASPA) in order to provide the tangible, useful benefits that you've been wanting. These benefits include such things as publications developed specifically for public practitioners, webinars, a daily email digest of public management news, and a greatly expanded network of public professionals.

The AACPM is now an officially approved Section of ASPA, and we are ready to accept membership renewals and new members! I hope you have already received the email that went out this morning from ASPA/AACPM, but if you haven't, just click here and it will take you directly to the "Welcome AACPM Members" webpage. This page lists several benefits, and at the bottom provides a link to join online, or you can print the membership form and mail your payment.

There are three (3) membership classifications:

Regular Member (most of us);
 Senior Member (for our retirees); and Student or New Professional (for CPM Students or new graduates).
Note: The Student membership category may be used for a maximum of three years, and the New Professional category for a maximum of two years.

If you are, were, or want to be an AACPM member, select the "I am a CPM" option on the qualifying questions. Next, you will choose AACPM as your Section option. When you complete the online application process, the $25 first year discount will be applied to all Regular Members.

Please remember that AACPM Section dues ($45) are separate from ASPA dues ($75). Full payment of $120 will include: 1) ASPA membership, 2) AACPM Section membership, 3) Local ASPA Chapter membership, and 4) Local CPM Society membership. No additional local dues will be assessed unless the local Society chooses to do so.

This is an exciting opportunity for you to jump on board our new adventure and see how this new partnership between ASPA and AACPM can benefit you and your career in public service. We believe it will be well worth the investment.

We look forward to you becoming a member of our new organization, and we welcome you.

Sincerely,

Mitchell Stern
